

As a flight attendant I am against the use of cell phones onboard and inflight as I feel it would compromise the safety and security of the passengers, crew, and inflight operations.